

Bin Erector

Location: Midwest, United States. Based out of Greater Sioux Falls Area

Hours: To Be Determined

POSITION SCOPE:

The Bin erector will be responsible for assisting in all aspects of grain bin construction and installation, which may include concrete work.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Erection and construction of grain bins.
- Installation of bin accessories.
- Onsite fabrication.
- Assist concrete crew as needed.
- Read blueprints accurately.
- Utilize measuring tools correctly.
- Ensure staging of raw materials is in place for the workday.
- Handle material efficiently and safely.
- Inspect in-process and finished product for quality. Adjusting resources as needed.
- Responsible for tracking tooling and reporting needs or replacements.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS AND EDUCATION:

- Ability to follow operating instructions as outlined.
- Travel to onsite locations required.
- Previous experience preferred.
- Strong communication skills required.
- Bi-lingual in English and Spanish is highly preferred but not required.
- A Valid Driver's License is required.
- Attention to detail required.
- Must follow all safety rules supported by the company.
- Ability to lift 50 lbs. unassisted.
- Ability to work within other physical requirements for position (i.e. stand/walk for duration of scheduled shift, bend/stoop as needed, and climb stairs and/or ladders when needed).
- General knowledge of crane operation and associated lifting devices.
- Forklift experience preferred.
- Ability to utilize various hand tools safely.
- Self-motivated with ability to work under limited general supervision.
- Basic math skills required.
- Manual dexterity
- Ability to do repetitive tasks